

Terror Stalks East Germany

Soviets Rush Arming, Even In Schools

Berlin, June 7 (AP)—Thousands of fearful Germans struggled to flee from Soviet held East Germany tonight as Communists rushed arming even in schools and factories.

A stream of human misery poured west from the Soviet zone, slipping past Russian sentries and Peoples' police at the risk of death in the Red's new frontier security belt.

In groups ranging from a single family to 800 persons, the East Germans arrived steadily in the American and British defended states of the Bonn Republic.

Behind them, Communists chiefs in East Berlin threw off all the wraps for a vast armament program including the two million members of the Communist free German Youth (FDJ) and workers in all key industries.

The aim is an army of 25 divisions with 375,000 men, backed up by millions of East Germans organized as Red militia and taught to hate the west.

The Soviet-controlled news agency ADN reported high schools are giving courses in firearms, military communications and aerodynamics that "armed defense corps" are being set up in major factories.

Under the rearmament program, every East German—regardless of age or sex—is ordered by the Communists to "do your part in defending our homeland."

Infantry battalions of girls in the FDJ have been outfitted in uniforms with those of the Soviet WACS.

East German rearmament, whose groundwork was laid with the formation of military cadres in the people's police three years ago, is pictured by the communists now as a sudden move to counter the threat of West Germany's alliance with the western powers.

Ask Civil Service Men For Political Funds, Paper Says

Chicago, June 7 (AP)—The Chicago Tribune today quoted an unnamed state civil service employee as describing "methods used in the last six weeks to soften up the state's merit system and make civil service workers available for political duty and contributions."

The story said civil service employees of the state insurance department were "solicited" for campaign funds at meetings held in state offices in violation of the law.

Insurance department civil service employees, the paper said, were given mimeographed copies last month of a Democratic party analysis of civil service law and rules. The analysis concluded, the paper said, that "civil service employees can participate in politics and can contribute to political funds."

This week the same civil service employees were called together, the paper said, and "were told that non-civil service employees are contributing 2 per cent of their annual salary to Gov. Stevenson's personal campaign fund and that amount should be considered sufficient for those in the classified civil service."

The story named F. M. Martin, an assistant of insurance director J. Edward Day, as the collector of campaign funds in the insurance department offices.

Governor Stevenson and Martin could not be reached immediately for comment.

Martin was quoted in the story as saying he had collected about $60 in voluntary contributions from insurance department employees. But that he had told employees at the meetings they were free to contribute or not as they saw fit.

The Tribune said the analysis of the civil service regulations was prepared by the state Democratic central committee for county chairmen.

Meat Growing Experts Oppose Livestock Controls

Montgomery, Ala., June 7 (AP)—The nation's leading "meat-on-the-hoof" market experts today came out strongly against government controls affecting their business.

A resolution was shoutingly approved at the windup of the 64th annual National Livestock Exchange convention, asking Congress not to let the Office of Price Stabilization put quotas on livestock moving to slaughter.

Peoria, Ill., was chosen as the 1953 convention city after Robert J. Riddell, who lives there, was chosen president for another term.

US Has Korea Air Control Truman Says

Springfield, Mo., June 7 (AP)—President Truman warned grimly today that Russia may be plotting "new Korean in other parts of the globe" but he insisted that United States air supremacy in Korea is such that we "can bomb the enemy at will, almost anywhere in his territory."

In a departure from his prepared text, the president declared that "in air combat in Korea our planes have knocked down the Russians out at the rate of eight to one."

He retorted sharply to Senator Robert A. Taft's criticism of administration air policy and denounced "short-sighted politicians" he accused of slashing defense appropriations for "playing with fire" in the face of Soviet threats around the world.

Talk that our forces in Korea "are at the mercy" of the Russian-made enemy air force just "isn't true at all," he said.

"This is not the year to play around with meat axes in the field of national security. The communists are building up forces in Korea and other parts of Asia. In Europe, the Russians are threatening Berlin. Communist parties are staging riots from Paris to Tokyo."

He warned that the "cold fact is that we are still in great danger."

"We cannot tell the Kremlin is planning. There may be new offensives in Korea. There may be a new Korean in other parts of the globe. The Communists may even be planning greater attacks than we have seen up to this point. We do not know, we cannot be sure."

But, contradicting those who say the defense program has been neglected, the president asserted:

1. The air force has grown in two years from 48 wings and 400,000 men and less than 2,000 planes to 91 wings, almost a million men and nearly 15,000 planes in active use.

2. And this, he said, does not include "the big build-up of air power in the navy and Marine Corps."

"In two or three years, this expansion, plus that of other air units will give us terrifically powerful forces," he said.

3. The United States Army has been doubled in size in the last two years, and is being re-equipped with the finest modern weapons now being delivered in quantity.

4. The navy has twice as many ships in full operation now as before Korea, with ships and weapons improving all the time.

Truman argued that this country is seeking technical supremacy rather than trying to build the biggest air force in the world.

Arrest Two Men In Texas For Theft Of Plane

Brownsville, Texas, June 7 (AP)—A four engine DC-4 transport was stolen in Oakland, Calif., today and nearly seven hours later police arrested two New York men who landed the craft here.

Police Chief Gus O. Krause identified the men as Lloyd A. Webb, 32, of Bayshore, N. Y., and Leonard C. Mills, 39, of New York City. He held them on an open charge.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority in Oakland reported the plane stolen this morning from United States Overseas Airlines. The CAA said the two men were at the controls when the $750,000 transport took off from the Oakland airport at 8:18 a.m. PDT.

Krause said Webb told him the two fliers had seized the plane on a $150,000 debt owed him by the U. S. Overseas Airlines.

Webb was quoted by Krause as saying he planned to hold the plane in Brownsville until a suit filed in New York against U. S. O. A. was settled.

The CAA reported the plane was registered to the U. S. O. A. Edward F. Norman, operations manager for the airline, said the plane was purchased in 1951 from Canamex Corp. of New York City.

Krause said he planned to hold Webb and Mills until he got a confirmation or denial from the FBI in San Francisco that charges being filed against the men.

The big craft, serving on the Korean airlift, landed at Brownsville International airport at 4:58 p.m. CST, six hours and 40 minutes after it left Oakland.

"I never heard anything like it before in my 20 years in aviation," Norman told reporters. "All I can say I wish it hadn't happened. It's very embarrassing."

The transport was scheduled to leave Oakland today to pick up a cargo for Tokyo at Travis Air Force Base, California.

Aiken Charges Demos Drove Farm Prices Down In 1948

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) today spelled out details of his charge that the Democrats, in what he called successful political trickery, drove farm prices down by a billion dollars in 1948.

And, he said, he sees indications that the same thing might happen in this election year.

The result of the manipulations, he declared in a statement, was that "the farmers of America contributed a billion dollars" to President Truman's 1948 campaign.

The manipulation of the grain market, Aiken said, was aimed at keeping the Truman administration in office.

Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan have denied that the government had any hand in the 1948 fall in grain prices.

"American agriculture has never fully recovered from this decline of late summer and fall of 1948," Aiken said.

"This is evidenced by the fact that from that time on the debt of the farmer has steadily increased until today it is nearly doubled what it was five years ago and is still increasing."

The white-haired New Englander said he was telling his story "because there are already many signs that the administration intends to again drive down farm prices in this election year of 1952."

Aiken said the Truman administration beat down farm prices in 1948 by falsely telling farmers that the Republican-controlled 80th congress had made it impossible to provide storage for the huge crops of that year. Many farmers, he said, were thus forced to dump their crops for what they could get and lose the advantage of the federal price support system.

Aiken said in his statement today that Mr. Truman "made one of the most demagogic speeches ever heard in America" at Dexter, Ia., Saturday, Sept. 18, 1948, accusing the 80th congress of tying the hands of the administration.

American foreign policy should be "approached from the standpoint of enlightened self-interest," he said he did not like the terms "Isolationist" and "Internationalist."

He has not had time to consider a vice presidential running mate, if he wins the Republican nomination.

As to having a woman in his cabinet, he said he always sought the best brain for a particular job, and that if he found it in a woman, she would get the job.

In the recent conflict involving the steel industry, the labor unions, and the president, he said he would "not quarrel with the Supreme Court." Had he been a president confronted with that problem, he said he would "have no recourse but to try to see where the best interests lie."

Indiana Gives Taft 30 Sure Delegates, Ike A-Probable 2

Indianapolis, June 7 (AP)—A swelling Indiana Republican convention today loudly instructed its 32 delegates to vote for Sen. Robert A. Taft.

But one pro-Eisenhower delegate defied the action and another delegate may not comply.

If 30 Hoosiers vote for Taft, it would give him a prospective Chicago convention lead of about 86 votes over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The well-oiled Indiana Taft organization flattened Eisenhower opposition in choosing most delegates, and on a voice vote told them to vote for Taft for the presidential nomination until the Ohioan releases them.

Indiana's selection of delegates, the last major one before the Chicago convention opens July 7, left the two top contenders for the presidential nomination short of the publicly committed strength needed for a first ballot nomination.

Taft said at Indianapolis yesterday he believes he has half of to be chosen. Whether he will try for nomination on the first ballot will depend on what seems to be the best strategy at the time, he said.

Eisenhower's campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, has said the General can win on the first ballot.

With the 30 sure votes he got in Indiana, Taft's standing in the Associated Press tabulation jumped to 462 delegates. Eisenhower was credited with 387. Other candidates had 130 and 210 were publicly uncommitted.

Edwin Steers, Sr., treasurer of the Indiana Republican committee and a member of the state election board, said the convention action "is tantamount to unit rule."

However, the Republican national convention does not recognize the unit rule of delegates in voting unless it is unanimously adopted by the state delegation.

Besides two delegates he expected to get in Virginia, Taft could increase his total with another 10 at large delegates to be chosen by the Illinois Republican convention late this month.

Without counting Puerto Rico's three to be selected, this would give Taft a lead of 85 over Eisenhower if there are no further changes in sentiment by delegates already chosen.

A total of 604 votes is needed for the nomination. This situation emphasized the intensive drive which will be made by both camps to win voting converts in the month before the Chicago convention opens.

CORONATION IS JUNE 2 London, June 7 (AP)—It's positively official now—Queen Elizabeth II will be crowned June 2, 1953.

Scarlet-uniformed heralds read out at four points of London today a royal proclamation fixing the date, which has been no secret for weeks.

In British lands around the world, officers and representatives of the Queen's court went through a similar routine.

Secure Peace Underlies All Problems: Ike

New York, June 7 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today "I'd go anywhere and do anything"—including talking with Prime Minister Stalin—in the effort to achieve a secure peace.

That problem, he said, underlies and aggravates all other problems.

However, he continued, he has some doubt whether a conference with Stalin would contribute to the solution. He told a news conference, his second full-dress session with correspondents:

"I am not certain that is the way to approach the problem. If I believe it was, and that such a meeting is desirable, there is nothing I would not do to promote peace and security."

"I would go anywhere and do anything."

The conference ended in an uproar.

A man who said he was Dr. Emmanuel M. Josephson, and had written and published a book called "Rockefeller Internationalism" asked Eisenhower why he had associated himself with Alger Hiss.

(Hiss, former State department official, was convicted of perjury in denying that he passed official secrets to a pre-war Soviet spy ring.)

"I do not believe it's necessary for me to defend myself against communism or fascism in any form," he continued. "The man who was mentioned I have seen only once in my life."

He said he had joined the Carnegie endowment for international peace, had visited its offices, and there discovered that Hiss was president of the organization. "That was the only time I ever saw him. I never saw him before or since."

He does not consider that the basic differences between the United States and the Soviet Union are "negotiable" so long as Soviet doctrine insists that the two systems these nations represent cannot co-exist in the world.

American foreign policy should be "approached from the standpoint of enlightened self-interest," he said he did not like the terms "Isolationist" and "Internationalist."

He has not had time to consider a vice presidential running mate, if he wins the Republican nomination.

As to having a woman in his cabinet, he said he always sought the best brain for a particular job, and that if he found it in a woman, she would get the job.

In the recent conflict involving the steel industry, the labor unions, and the president, he said he would "not quarrel with the Supreme Court." Had he been a president confronted with that problem, he said he would "have no recourse but to try to see where the best interests lie."

100,000 A Month Draft Calls Seen For Early 1953

By The World Staff Of The Associated Press

Washington — The August draft call of 29,000 foreshadows calls of 100,000 in the early months of next year—that is, if the armed services expect to reach their planned strength of 3,700,000 by July 1953.

It appears that calls up until mid-1953 will reflect calls of correspondingly months two years earlier.

Drafts of late 1950 and early 1951 will be getting out of service and will have to be replaced. The plus will come in because of the release of reservists, who also must be replaced, and the planned increase in strength.

On that basis, look for a September draft call of about 30,000 and calls of about 60,000 in October, 80,000 in November and 40,000 in December. (The call fell off in December 1950.)

Drafts will be getting out at 80,000 or 90,000-a-month clip in January, February and March.

Congressmen Call New Ambassador From Russia, Spy

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Two congressmen today attacked the new Soviet ambassador to the United States, calling him a spy and a former secret police general whose appointment was an insult.

The attacks came from Reps. O'Konski and Lawrence H. Smith, both Wisconsin Republicans.

O'Konski said he would ask a House committee to voice a formal protest against the acceptance of Georgi N. Zarubkin as new Russian envoy.

Smith demanded in a statement that the White House and state department reverse their reported plan to accept Zarubkin.

Zarubkin, former ambassador to London, has been approved as the successor to Alexander S. Panysukhin who leaves Washington tomorrow for an unspecified new assignment. Panysukhin has served in Washington since December, 1947.

It is estimated that insects each year destroy enough U.S. wheat in storage to fill the wheat needs of 16 million people.

Three Day Recess In Truce Talks Irks Communists

Munsan, Korea, Sunday, June 8 (AP)—Communist truce negotiators, stung by the three-day recess imposed Saturday by the U.N. command, stayed home today—but sent Red liaison officers to tell the Allies they did not agree to the forced delay.

Until the actual hour set for the daily meetings—11 a.m.—the Allies were not sure whether the Red delegation would appear at Panmunjom.

The Reds called a liaison officer meeting a few hours earlier. Chinese Col. Tsai Cheng Wen told the Allied staff officer, Col. James C. Murray: "I am instructed to inform you that the three-day recess has not been agreed upon by both delegations. I still request your delegation to come to the conference according to the usual, normal procedure."

Murray told Tsai the Allied delegation would not come to Panmunjom unless the Red negotiators submitted in writing "specific proposals" which they intended to make.

Otherwise, Murray declared, the U.N. command would not return to the conference until June 11.

The Allies declared the recess Saturday and walked out on the conference. The unexpected action followed several attempts by the U.N. command to get the Reds to agree to a break in the bitterly-sharpened talks on prisoner of war exchange.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, senior Allied delegate, told the Reds that further repetition of the argument on the deadlocked prisoner exchange issue was "quite futile."

He led the United Nations command negotiator out of the faded tent at Panmunjom while the Communists were still talking. Harrison said tersely the Allied tent wouldn't be back until June 11 whether the Communists liked it or not, and that liaison officers could handle any business in the meantime.

Allies Work At Compound 66

Koje Island, Korea, Sunday, June 8 (AP)—Army engineers today resumed digging for suspected escape tunnels at a Communist war-prisoner compound where British guards used tear gas Saturday to put down shows of defiance.

The engineers were using a mechanical ditch-digger for the work—the third day of burrowing around unruled compound 66.

British guards hurled six tear gas grenades into the compound to drive a group of prisoners away from the inner barbed wire fence. The Reds persistently had refused orders to move away from the scene of the digging.

It was the only noteworthy disturbance Saturday among the 17 compounds enclosing some 80,000 Communist-aggrieved prisoners. No casualties were reported.

Fifteen minutes earlier, the North Korean officers staged a propaganda show for the benefit of a score of Allied newsmen and photographers who had gathered outside the compound to watch the digging. The Red prisoners brought out five elaborately painted signs depicting the Communist versions of "massacre" of prisoners on Koje. They placed them on the roof and sides of building facing the barbed wire.

First Japanese Ambassador Since War, Arrives In US

Washington, June 7 (AP)—The United States and Japan today completed re-establishment of normal diplomatic relations with the arrival here of Japan's first post-war ambassador.

Elkichi Araki, businessman and finance expert, arrived to assume the top post in the Tokyo foreign diplomatic service. He lost no time in declaring that Japan is "inseparably" lined up with the United States and other free nations of the world.

The newly-arrived diplomat said that Japan will apply immediately for membership in the United Nations.

$16,000 LIFE'S SAVINGS SAVED FROM FIRE

Moline, Ill., June 7 (AP)—Seventy-nine year old Jacob H. Fiser, who said he didn't trust banks, lost most of his personal belongings in a fire last night, but saved his life savings of $16,000.

The blaze swept through his two-room converted construction trailer and destroyed furniture and other belongings. However, firemen found a bulk of Fiser's savings in a tin box in a charred cabinet. Other amounts were found in remnants of a burned pair of overalls and in a coffee cup.

Fiser was away at the time of the fire.

NIXON SUGGESTED

Washington, June 2 (AP)—A group of 21 Republican House members today suggested Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California for keynote speaker at the Republican presidential convention opening in Chicago July 7. They sent a telegram to Guy Gabrielson, Republican national chairman and head of the convention arrangements committee, requesting the committee to consider Nixon's qualifications.

Both Sides In Steel To Report To Leaders

Taft Wins In S. Dakota By 613 Votes

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 7 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio won South Dakota's 14 national Republican convention delegates by a 613-vote margin over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the official county canvass showed tonight.

An Associated Press compilation of the canvass by South Dakota's 68 county auditors showed:

Taft 64,617
Eisenhower 64,004

The official vote is subject to revision by the state canvass, possibly late next week.

Based on the county figures, Taft won 50.241 per cent of the total vote in Tuesday's presidential primary and Eisenhower won 49.754.

A week before the primary, editors of South Dakota's daily newspapers had predicted a photo-finish between Taft and Eisenhower. The editors, surveyed by the AP, forecast 51.2 per cent of the votes would go to Taft; 48.8 to Eisenhower.

The results of the close-fought primary remained in doubt until county canvassing boards checked poll books today.

Former Gov. George T. Mickelson, head of the Eisenhower slate, said it appears on the basis of the county tabulation that Taft won by a narrow margin. But, he said, he would watch the state canvass with interest. He said he had served on the state canvassing board eight years, and "I've seen some material changes sometimes."

"I don't want to appear sour grapes," Mickelson said, "but, I do feel the South Dakota primary was a victory for Eisenhower and a defeat for Taft." He noted Taft campaigned in the state and Eisenhower did not.

Mickelson said the South Dakota primary disproved Taft's claim to heavier support in the Midwest.

Down Payment On New Houses To Be Lower

Washington, June 7 (AP)—The government has decided to lower down payment requirements on new houses Monday, informed officials reported tonight.

They said the Federal Reserve Board's Regulation X, controlling real estate credit, will be modified on houses in all price brackets.

The Housing and Home Finance Agency, which must concur with the reserve board on any changes, has been talking the matter over with reserve officials for weeks.

A final decision was reached, this week and will be announced Monday, officials said.

They said changes will be slight in the lower price brackets, from $15,000-$12,000 down. But down payment requirements will be reduced substantially on medium and higher priced homes.

Relation X now requires a sliding scale of down payments starting at $1,550 for a conventional loan on an $8,000 house and zooming up to 50 per cent down on all house above $24,500.

One informed official said the new scale will call for a down payment of between 33 and 40 per cent on houses costing more than $24,500.

From this point downward, the new schedule will install lower and more evenly graduated down payments all along the line, this official said.

Loans guaranteed by the government for veterans carry smaller down payments than conventional loans, ranging from $750 down on an $8,000 house to 45 per cent for houses above $24,500.

Down payments on GI loans also would be lowered in line with the new scale for conventional loans.

The regulation also covers many types of commercial and industrial buildings. Credit requirements on these probably will be eased also, an official said.

Some real estate interests have been plugging long and hard for a complete removal of credit controls on housing, but reserve authorities are not ready to go that far.

ALONE IN U.S.S.R.

Washington (AP)—A state department intelligence report says a group of refugee Russians pictures the Soviet Union as torn by class conflicts but "held together by controls firm enough to make disintegration unlikely."

"Again and again," says the report, "the sources spoke of the feeling of isolation experienced by the individual in the Soviet Union who knows he is against the regime himself but who fears that he is alone in his convictions."

Some of the nine refugees, the third such group to be interviewed recently, said the most discontented is the peasant class. Two talked about the "miserable life" of factory workers, and one of the declared Soviet factories suffered minor sabotage.

BLAME RAINMAKERS; IT RAINS ON RESORTS AS CROPS DRY UP

Washington, June 7 (AP)—Those rain makers in New Mexico are in for some trouble if Michigan has many more rainy week-ends.

Sen. Moody (D-Mich.) has taken up the cudgels in a letter to the defense department. He demanded to know why, if rain makers can turn on the rain and shut it off like a faucet, his state has to get its share in the form of fun-spilling rainy week-ends.

Catering to tourists is a major industry in Michigan. And the Michiganians have been getting pretty touchy about the frequency of rainy week-ends since Dr. Irving Langmuir, under defense department auspices, started seeding clouds with chemicals over New Mexico to soak the arid lands below.

Michigan tourists and resort owners have responded with howls that Langmuir usually does his cloud seeding on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, and that once seeded the clouds keep on leaking as the prevailing winds move them over Michigan and other more easterly states on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

DIGGING INTO HISTORY

"What 'ya doing? Digging for gold?"
The question was funny for the grinning spectators who asked it but it got to be corny for the archeologists concerned with finds of other nature.

Prof. John C. McGregor, who heads a party of scientists now engaged in research along the Illinois river in Pike, Greene, Brown and Calhoun counties, remembers the summer several years ago when his group picked and shoveled downward several feet on Starved Rock. Despite the presence of daily crowds which watched the proceedings, sometimes getting so close that the U. of I. students couldn't swing a pick, the party was able to unearth much valuable information about early-day habitation on the historic bluff in Starved Rock State Park.

"If we were asked about digging gold one time, we were asked 10,000 times," Dr. McGregor chuckled, as he recalled the excavations. The university group discovered a number of objects that furnished additional insight into the early fortifications built by the French.

In counties adjacent to Morgan the object of the research crew is somewhat different. Dr. McGregor and his students, by digging into the rugged terrain on fringes of the valley, hope to learn more about the life and habits of the Hopewell Indians. The Hopewells were a race believed to have inhabited this section many centuries before the Illini, Iroquois, Pawnees, Shawnees and other tribes began ramming around, making it tough on each other and strangers.

From what has been learned of the Hopewells they were rather advanced in culture, a snooty outfit compared to later day tribes which plundered and lifted scalps with abandon. The Hopewells settled down, planted their crops, turned out a passably good brand of pottery, and tried to get along as decent citizens.

The Hopewells once resided in a village near Mere-dosa. No one knew where the village was, or that it ever existed, until Dr. McGregor and his digging crew came along last year. They went to work in the edge of a cornfield, and after awhile they came up with an Indian village. Discoveries of this kind are not new to the men and women who make a study of American antiquity, who delve into Mother Earth for age-old secrets which maps and books do not contain.

Western Illinois is an interesting section today with its modern towns and fertile, well equipped farms. It must have been an interesting, colorful section then. The Hope-wells would have made good neighbors.

THE POOR MAN'S PHILOSOPHER ON JOE COLLEGE, ETC.

BY HAL BOYLE

New York—AP—Diary notes by a

pavement plato:

Lucky Joe College!

Graduation day means the end of midnight party raids on sorority

dormitories for Joe, but this year

he has compensations.

In the past his sheepskin diploma has just been a dust-catching souvenir. But in 1952 it is the open sesame to financial success.

The world isn't waiting for Joe

College to build a better mouse trap

before beating a path to his door. It is beating his door down in the hope

he can build any kind of a mouse

trap.

Big business scouts have been standing in line to pick off the cream of the college graduates, offering them $400 a month and up to $1,000 a year post.

What most older men would like is a letter of advice from him on how he did it. Ten thousand dollars?

Even professional baby sitters do not make that kind of money today.

But many a Joe College is going to have to postpone accepting the golden offers that come his way.

There is an earlier bid for his services put in by an elder member of his family—Uncle Sam.

There is a story going around about an old-fashioned husband who though his wife was spending too much time watching television.

He put his foot down and flatly forbade her to turn the set on during the day.

The following evening he came home and caught her sitting in front of it. He bawled her out.

The next evening when he arrived

she was dusting the house like crazy.

But, suspicious, he touched his palm to the television screen. It was still warm—she had just switched the thing off. Sternly he bawled her out again.

"I came home a little early the next night," he said. "And guess what? There was my wife down on her knees in front of the television set blowing on the screen like mad

and trying to cool it off."

Speaking of problems with womenfolk, a friend of mine had one with his very young daughter.

She had joined the Brownies—the knee-high version of the Girl Scouts

—but after a while decided she wanted to get out.

"Well, honey, if you really feel sure you don't want to belong any more, just quit," said her father.

"It isn't that easy," said the little girl, dolefully. "They let you keep the blouse and skirt—but they make you rip the buttons off."

The father had an eerie vision of his daughter, standing forlornly at dawn before massed lines of other little girls as she was stripped of her rank and rummed out of the organization.

F. S. Sland still a Brownie. Just couldn't stand losing her buttons.

The poor man's philosopher says:

What gives most wives tension is lack of attention.

American dogs are barking excitedly among themselves about a new canine food soon to be put on the market. It tastes like a postman's ankle.

WHAT'S RIGHT

When you are introduced to someone you do not catch the name.

WRONG: Let it go, thinking it doesn't matter.

RIGHT: Ask to have the name repeated, so that you will be able to tell the person by name when saying

"Goodbye," and be able to introduce the person if the need arises.

"DRESSED" IN A PLANE—"I feel like I was wearing her instead of flying her," said Test Pilot Bob Starr after taking up "Sky Baby," the world's smallest plane on its first flight at Palm Springs, Calif. The midjet has a wingspread of only seven feet, three inches, is nine feet 10 inches long, weighs 452 pounds and is powered by an 180-hp, 85-hp. Continental engine that turns a 60-inch wood-and-plastic propeller. Starr, shown in the plane, and Ray Sims, of Riverside, Calif., built Sky Baby for about $2200.

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Exclusively Yours: Marilyn Monroe can start blushing again. Her famous nude photograph on a calendar has been cast in a movie as a pin-up picture. In color, yet!

The controversial photograph—censors permitting—will be seen for a brief flash on the bulkhead of an aircraft carrier cabin shared by Sterling Hayden and Richard Carlson in Monogram's Cinecolor special, "Flat Top." The story's about an aircraft carrier in action off Korea.

John Ireland's ex-wife is headed for the courts to ask for more support money. She'll claim Joanne Dru has "hidden assets"—the same tactics used against Virginia Mayo
by Michael O'Shea's ex.

Fred Allen just snagged another starring role at Fox—in "The Ransom of Red Chief," one of the four O'Henry stories being filmed under the title of "Bagdad on the Subway." It's the result of his success in "We're Not Married."

Actress Pat Kirkland, daughter of Nancy Carroll, and Don Bevan expect the stork in July. . . Veronica Lake, ready to divorce Andre De Toth, has her next hubby picked out —actor Bob Quarrie. They'll co-star this summer on the straw-hat circus. . . RKO will reissue "King Kong" in July. . . That line in the ads for "The Sniper"—"Tenderly he held her—in the sights of his gun!"
—hits the bulls-eye for box-office appeal.

ANY OLD SONG TITLE

It's open season on mad song titles. Dimitri Tiomkin just wrote
"Nocturne in Any Old Flat as Long as You Have the Right Key" and Denny Kaye will sing "Expression on a Bee's Face While Buzzing Around a French Horn" on his next USO tour.

Eye-opener: "Without Warning," a lurid story of a sex slaver who stabs gorgeous blondes, is the latest screen shocker. It was written by Bill Raynor, who simultaneously wrote a series of 13 simon-pure Wild Bill Hickok stories for TV!

Bruce Bennett and Jeffrey Lynn are about to be signed as Gloria Swanson's leading men in No. 3 and 4 of the film series she's making for Simmel-Meservey Productions in Mexico City.

Betty Davis and Gary Merrill are screaming. "We never heard of it," about New York reports that they will co-star in a drama titled "The Wooden Dish." . . Liz Taylor and Michael Wilding are again denying the flock of stock rumors. So is Liz's mother, who talks to her once a week via trans-Atlantic phone. . .
The report that MGM has bought Ruth Pittner's life story is on the error side of the ledger at the moment. The true yarn is under consideration, with the problem of obtaining clearance from the people in Ruth's life holding up final discussions.

Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers are denying their fabulous 13-acre Pickford estate is for sale. Built on a once-noted hilltop in Beverly Hills, the estate now is surrounded by a real estate subdivision.

GO TO SPAIN FOR COLOR

Linda Dornell and Robert Cummings will be co-starring in Albert Zueschke's "Conquest and Desire,"
a color flicker about the banishment of the Moors from Spain in the 17th Century. They'll go to Spain for the film next year.

An MGM contract is being drawn up for Red Skelton's blonde stooges, Lucy Knoch, who makes her big screen bow in "Tribute to a Bad Man." Lucy's under personal contract to Skelton, by the way.

Farley Granger's burning over this run magazine cover line
"Girls Run Romance," by Farley Granger.

Mary Astor whose critical illness forced her to retire from pictures a few years back, has licked the ailment that darkened her career. She'll try for a movie comeback.

Garv Cooper is huddling with lawyers to reactivate his independent film company for shooting of an Ernest Hemingway yarn this fall. . . Peter Coo—he's the star of "Halleluiah"—and his wife, former model Rosalee Calvert, have a date with the stork.

The Marx Brothers are plotting a film reunion—in a comedy to be filmed in Hawaii. . . Jeff Chandler is saying that "Magic Lady" may be his last movie and that he may go back to radio until his contract with UI runs out. A BIG money quarrel with the studio.

The Sunset strip of night club fame, says Frank Veloz, is where a secret is rushed from place to place.

Scott Brady is acting plumb surprised at being given an Errol Flynn type of stint in UI's "Yankee Buccaneer."

He can ripple his muscles, all right, but protests "These kinds of roles go to guys who speak the King's English pretty good and can wear plumed hats and take low bows. I don't know whether I can get away with it. I may look like one of the East Side kids with a cutlass."

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

God's Standard of Honesty

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

What does it mean to be honest?

The question and the answer are not just as simple as one might suppose. To be honest means to be honest— isn't that all there is to it?

By no means! When one gets out into life, and begins to observe society, one quickly finds that there are varying standards of honesty.

There is, for instance, that old and very true observation from experience, that "honesty is the best policy," which leaves one wondering just how inherently honest is a man who is honest just because it pays to be. I have known men to be honest where it cost them a lot to stand by their idea of what was right and just.

Then there is the type whose idea of honesty is bound up with ideas of law and legality. As long as the law allows it, why shouldn't he do it?

There is a great amount of that sort of legalized honesty prevalent in the world today, and much of it in very respectable quarters; but what does God think of it? The law of the land, some are not particularly honest, or who are under the domination of unsavory influences, does not always conform to the law of God, or righteousness among men.

There is the man, too, who wouldn't put his hand in your pocket and steal your wallet, but who sees nothing wrong about manipulating companies and corporations in a

sly,

way that your investments are wiped out to his gain.

So there are grades, and varieties,

and standards of honesty, and so there is some point in asking, "What is God's standard?"

I think God's standard of honesty is related to truth and inherent right. Truth and inherent right are not something that men make.

Man may make his codes and creeds, and seek to give them divine authority, but that doesn't make them either true or right. In the world of science men have theories concerning facts and phenomena,

but they have to abandon such theories, when further and conflicting light and evidence appear.

Though we may not always realize it, the same thing is true in religious experience. Many have had to abandon, or change, their beliefs, when they found that these did not stand the test of further light and evidence.

A striking instance is the general

abandonment of the literalistic belief that the world was created in six twenty-four hour days. A great poem of creation is not a scientific treatise, but science and Genesis agree that creation was a bringing of order out of chaos.

Honesty according to God's standard is to bring one's life and action into harmony with the truth

as one sees it. That is true honesty, and nothing less is true honesty, and nothing less is true hon-

Pretty, Washable Petticoats Important Fashion Accessory

Your petticoat wardrobe is more important this Spring and Summer than ever before. Available in a variety of materials, petticoats insure that wonderful full-skirted look (right). And to keep them clean, simply resort to a batch of lukewarm suds (above). Use a warm iron to take out any wrinkles.

Don't look now—but your petticoat is showing. It's all right, though, for this season fashion is pointing to tiny waistlines and billowing skirts puffed out with pretty underpinnings.

A variety of colors and materials allow you much more leeway than great grandmother ever had, plus the wonderful advantage of completely washable fabrics.

Nylon nets and tricot are petticoat favorites permanently finished to retain their stiffness after countless soapy dunkings. You can eliminate all ironing if you finger-press close gathers or tucks. Simply draw the material through your fingers slowly and firmly.

Batiste, organdy, plisse, or dotted swiss make ideal underskirts and, with their delicate rows of lace and ribbon, look delightfully gay peeking out from under a glazed chintz or taffeta overskirt.

An exciting bit of fashion news is the indoor-outdoor petticoat, to be worn either as a skirt or under your summer frocks to perk them out.

For a good versatile, take-anywhere petticoat wardrobe, the first thing to consider is the washability of all the fabrics—especially the stiff ones.

Always make sure that the hemlines of your petticoats are spanking clean, too. Use a small, stiff brush dipped in soapsuds and go over the edgings carefully before laundering the entire garment.

When you buy slip-cover material, be sure it has sufficient weight and strong enough yarns to withstand hard wear; will launder easily without shrinking; and will hold its color in light and washing.

If You Wear A Half Size

You're certain to be pleased with this attractive, well tailored shirt-waist style designed especially to compliment the not-so-tall figure. It buttons down the front, is as neat as a pin.

Pattern No. 8762 is a sew-rite perforated pattern in sizes 14 1/2, 16 1/2, 18 1/2, 20 1/2, 22 1/2, 24 1/2. Size 16 1/2, short sleeve, 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch.

SUNNY DAYS

Baby Needs Outdoor Life

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Always a problem for the new mother is just how much sun her baby can stand. This, of course, is especially true now, with the coming of summer.

If you are in a quandary as to what to do, here are a few pertinent points which may prove helpful. As soon as your baby weighs 10 pounds, she should spend two or three hours a day outside. This is true even on the hottest days—providing you can find a reasonably cool area. The best hours in sultry weather are in the early morning and late afternoon.

Since the health-giving rays of the sun are absolutely essential to your child's physical development, it is important that you plan the sun bathing periods carefully.

Gradual exposure is the first essential. And even when baby has acquired a good healthy tan, it still is not safe to place her in the direct rays of the sun. Always keep in mind that an extreme sunburn can be just as serious as a heat burn.

To keep your baby as cool and comfortable as possible while she is out and under the sun, place her on a mat or pad on the ground. She will only become overheated if she remains in her carriage.

If you are at the beach, the baby should be kept completely out of the sun for the first few days. The reflected glare will in all probability be more than enough to burn her. As soon as your baby is old enough to move about under her own steam, cover her head with a hat.

Household Hints

Give your imitation pearls an occasional careful dusting with a soft flannel cloth to remove moisture and face powder.

A cushion under a carpet or rug takes some of the wear. A moth-proofed hair-pad is best, but several layers of newspapers will do.

Pin cushions appeared during the reign of Queen Elizabeth. Some of them were heavily embroidered, be-tassled, sometimes mounted in silver and gold.

Remove candle wax drippings with a stiff piece of cardboard. Then wash residue with mild soap and finish by polishing.

Check the loops on the terry towels you buy. These loops should be close and thickly packed for absorbency.

Nelly Don

Smart idea for Summer: this full-skirted, slender-topped coatdress by Nelly Don.

Understand Your Skin

Regardless of your complexion type, as a teen-ager you should be aware of just what your skin is, and how it functions in your behalf.

First, it is important that you understand it is a living organ of your body. Through perspiration, both "visible" and "invisible," your skin actually helps to regulate the temperature of your body. Also by means of perspiration, it helps excrete body wastes.

The covering your skin forms for your entire body serves to protect it from bacteria and dirt, and guards the inner organs against injury. If yours is a normal skin, it should manufacture softening oils to keep its own surface elastic and pliable. (This is where the trouble often occurs, and causes the need for special lubricating preparations.)

Your skin is constantly making itself over, creating new living cells and sloughing off dead, dried-out skin cells. But it can only function properly if it is healthy and well cared for.

To have a healthy skin, of course, you must be in excellent physical condition. Don't overeat in the desert department. Keeping late hours won't help either. Try to get as much outdoor exercise as is possible. Eat lots of fruits, vegetables and salads, and drink at least a pint of milk a day. Water is important in your skin-care ritual, too.

A part of any discussion about your skin must include cleanliness. Are you absolutely meticulous with your soap and water washings? Do you use a cleansing cream to gather up even the tiniest speck of soot, grime and stale make-up? Have you established the habit of applying a light film of the proper cream on your skin before you go to sleep?

Treat your young skin with gentle, faithful care. Remember, you are preparing for a future of beauty.

When the occasion is formal enough, fasten your very largest jeweled pin or clip on the cuff of your classic dark coat.

Create Illusion of Youthful Glow Beauty Magic In News

There is an unusual make-up preparation now on the market that is designed to keep the mature woman looking young. Touch the cream to those aging facial lines (above and center left) and they seem to disappear entirely.

This amazing beauty aid does not interfere with your regular make-up application. Apply mascara (center right) and your final powdering (right) just as you always do for a finished look of smooth and glowing perfection.

TRAVEL FIGURES

Foundations Stress Beauty

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

To get your travel wardrobe off to a good start, it is important that you give some thought to the foundation garments you will need. For it isn't so much what you wear, but how you wear it that keeps you looking and feeling well-dressed, no matter where you go.

The basic foundation requisites are two girdles, one pantie girdle, corselet, waistlet and five brassieres. Of course, your own individual figure requirements will influence your choices. For example, if your figure is full, you will most likely want fore corselets. If you are a junior, however, two pantie girdles and one girdle will probably fill the bill.

For the suit with a snugly fitted jacket, wear a high-waisted girdle to keep your midriff under control. The new torso-fitted middies demand hip control, and a waist-high girdle will give it.

Since full-skirted styles continue to hold their own, a waistlet of some type is a necessity. The narrow cinch may be worn over your regular girdle to pull in your waistline.

As for brassieres, take along two in white or pink, one in black or navy to wear under dark suits and dresses, and one long-line garment and a strapless bra to be worn with strapless and scooped-out necklines.

Another good supplement to your bra wardrobe is the sun bra of pique or denim to wear with shorts and slacks. Your foundations assure a lovely figure regardless of the occasion or costume.

Try using your child's toy wagon to pull along the pails, soap and clothes you need for wall-washing or other housecleaning routines. You'll have less lifting, less stooping and less dripping.

DEDD'S

Beauty, in case you haven't ever thought about it, is actually a matter of lights and shadows.

There are four areas—around the mouth and nose, under the eyes and at the temples—of any girl or woman's face where the bone structure falls away and where the muscle cells are least evident. These are the areas that sink into shadows and discoloration.

Up to this time, you've probably treated such regions with resignation and as much make-up base as seemed reasonable. Now, however, with an amazing new preparation it is possible to "wash out" shadows and fine lines and "lift" your own face in doing it. And all this can be accomplished in just 45 seconds.

The fascinating part of this product is that it does not physically lift your skin. The entire theory behind it is in illusion—illusion through the absence of shadows and presence of light.

This preparation is a cream so finely milled it is almost without substance. In fact, it has absolutely nothing to do with the rest of your make-up. You might well consider it a beauty disguise that almost isn't there.

To use the cream, you merely "follow the hollow." Place the cushion of one finger in water to moisten it, and then dip the moistened finger in the preparation. Work from the bottom of your chin to the corner of your mouth; from the mouth corner to the nostril and around the ridge of the nostril. Then apply it under your eyes going from outer to inner corners; and at the temples going from a point just inside the end of the brow line, up and out over the temples.

The cream should be applied over your foundation because it acts as a "gripper," and also goes through make-up. After you have finished with the finger application, blend it with the rubber sponge that comes right with the product. Then, powder.

Another important point about this preparation, claimed by its makers, is that it will last from morning to midnight. If you have a particularly hard day, the manufacturer says all you have to do is wrap a few pieces of cleansing tissue around the sponge and pat it over your face. It will remove oil and surface dust and revive your make-up miraculously.

Through the use of the cream, you can create an illusion of changed facial contours and fill in deep-set areas anywhere on your face. You can even lift an eyebrow with just a dab of it. And, of course, most vital to the middle-aged woman, it produces a "years off" effect.

And remember, this isn't a corrective treatment that takes months or years to show any results. Rather, it is a formulated cosmetic that takes between 20 and 45 seconds. The more adept you become in handling the cream, the less application time it will require.

When you first put the white cream on your face, you may feel it will show. You need not worry about this, if you follow the directions carefully. It is designed to create an illusion and disappear as substance.

This new preparation may well be considered the "missing link" in your make-up application. Bring your face out of the shadows, and see for yourself what the light reveals.

For minor burns, apply sterile petrolatum, burn ointment, olive oil or mineral oil and cover the burned area with sterile gauze dressing.

The Most Expensive Miles That a Motor Car Can Travel

You, Mr. Motorist, will drive a lot of miles in the next six months—far more than you have been driving during the winter. Is your car fully prepared for the increased mileage of the outdoor season? Will you enjoy economical, safe, pleasant motoring?

Any automobile service man will tell you that a high percentage of the cars in operation today need service, and sooner or later will break down at inconvenient, if not dangerous times and places. Their owners are paying much more than is necessary for a mile of travel.

Because your car will run doesn't mean that it is in perfect mechanical condition. If it has not been inspected, tested and conditioned for summer driving you are going to have trouble no matter how smoothly it now appears to be running.

Service is our specialty. We would rather do an inexpensive, preventive service job than make the major repairs and replacements that result from a breakdown or an accident.

It will cost you little to KEEP your car up to par. It may cost you much to neglect it. Drive in and be sure.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT DIAMONDS

NE day the small son of a poor farmer in South Africa was playing with a pile of stones near his farmhouse. One of the stones caught his mother's eye. She showed it to a neighbor who bought it for a small sum. Later the stone passed into the hands of a man who knew it for a precious diamond . . . and thus were discovered the great African Diamond Mines.

The picture at left shows two veteran Jacksonville pilots enjoying a refreshing soft drink after scoring impressive victories in the heat races.

Don Lipcman is the driver on the left. The other is David Knight. Both drivers had car trouble in the feature but Knight managed to snag eighth place.

Browns Peddle Hank Arft To Portland Of PCL

St. Louis, June 7 —(AP)—First baseman Hank Arft was sold outright to Portland of the Pacific Coast league today by the St. Louis Browns.

To fill the gap in the club's roster, right-hander Bob Mahoney made his second trip up to the Browns this season from their San Antonio farm in the Texas league. He won two, lost five with the Browns and Chicago White Sox in 1951.

Arft, 30, has been with the Browns since coming up from Toledo, O., in 1948. An off-and-on first baseman last season, he appeared in but 15 games this year and had only four hits in 28 times at bat. All of the hits were for extra bases.

Yankees Shade Browns 2-1 With Reynolds On Hill

New York, June 7 —(AP)—Allie Reynolds came up with another masterful pitching performance today as the New York Yankees shaded the St. Louis Browns, 2-1.

The part-Indian right-hander permitted only three singles, fanned nine and walked one batter in hanging up his sixth straight victory and seventh of the season.

Duane Pillette, a former Yankee, also pitched a fine game for the Browns. Pillette granted only six hits in the seven innings he toiled but the Yanks collected three of the blows in the fifth inning when they scored both of their runs.

FAN BREEZES

BY BOB MERRIS

Hal Olson, former Jacksonville high school and Illinois college athlete, recently cracked his second United States Coast Guard Academy track record. The lanky local youth, a first classman at the Academy, romped to a new quarter-mile record when he ran the distance in 52.1 during a duel meet with Amherst college.

Olson set the 440 record in his first intercollegiate attempt at this distance. He has been concentrating his talents on the half-mile—he holds the Coast Guard record in this run also—the mile and the two-mile cross country.

Hal surpassed the 440 record of his buddy, Dave Klingensmith, who graduated last year. Klingensmith also holds the mile record at 4:34.5. Olson has clipped off the mile in 4:35 this season, so he's gunning for this third record.

Three Coast Guard track records is no small achievement. Olson, who became a first classman (senior) at the Academy only three days ago, is one of the top collegiate trackmen in the East today. And he's from Jacksonville.

Hal sails Monday on the Guard's summer cruise to the Scandinavian countries. He'll return August 16th and enjoy a leave with his parents, brother and sister.

It's a cinch that he won't get much track training on a "Hooligan" vessel. It's a very short dash to the chow line on anything but a carrier and the navy sails the big boats.

Jimmy Buckley is still low qualifier for the Nichols Park open. The past champion qualified with a 67. City champ Vince Maloney is a close second with 68. These two will be tough to beat. Qualifying runners must be turned in by Sunday evening, Wood Phillips says. He expects to announce the three flights early this week.

A special "Dad's night" will be observed at Nichols Park softball arena this Wednesday night. Three junior softball games will be played and the boys' fathers will be special guests. Here is the exhibition card: Lanes vs. Pepsi Cola 6 p.m.; Our Saviour's vs. Coca Cola 7:15 p.m.; Squires vs. Ebenezer 8:30 p.m.

All-Star baseball ballots are beginning to pour in. We saved the first card. Submitted by Richard Hicks, 415 N. Payette, it shows Campanella, Brooklyn, catcher; Hodges, Brooklyn, first base; Robinson, Brooklyn, second; Thompson, New York, third; Reese, Brooklyn, short stop; Kiner, Pittsburgh, left field; Musial, St. Louis, center field; Sauer, Chicago, right field. Richard's American League picks: Berra, New York, catcher; Easter, Cleveland, first; Marion, St. Louis, second; Kell, Philadelphia, third; Rizzuto, New York, short; Minoza, Chicago, left; DiMaggio, Boston, center; Mantle, New York, right.

It's obvious that Richard is a learned baseball follower. His selections make sense. But we couldn't help but chuckle at the neat way he got around the Marion-Rizzuto problem. He simply put Slats on second. Might be something for Roger Hornsby to look into.

Two Softball Games On Tap At South Side

Two top-notch softball games have been booked for play at Nichols Park tonight.

Hanabie Dixon's nine will engage New Berlin in the 7 o'clock preliminary. Dino Ronchetti, speedballing pitcher, will head a rugged Kliffeld Moose nine that is slated to meet Lewis Elevator in the 8:15 feature game.

Three junior league practice games were played at the southside Saturday night. United Surplus nipped Our Saviour's 12-10; the Squires walloped Pepsi Cola 22-3; Ebenezer clipped Coca-Cola 14-10.

SWIMMING IS FUN

And it may some day save your life. These Jacksonville youngsters are only a small portion of swimmers who daily crowd the Nichols Park pool. Manager Warren Flower reports record attendance at the southside tank this past week. And no wonder, for temperatures have soared into the 90's.

The YMCA-Red Cross swim classes will get underway at Nichols Park Monday morning, 9 o'clock.

Marciano-Matthews Sign For Bout

New York, June 7 —(AP)—Unbeaten Rocky Marciano, Brockton, Mass., slugger, and clever Harry Matthews of Seattle, Wash., today were matched for a 10-round heavyweight elimination bout at Yankee Stadium, Monday, July 28 by Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club.

The survivor of this "natural" already has been offered to Heavyweight Champion Jersey Joe Walcott for a September title defense. Walcott's manager, Felix Boechlichio, has said the champ would fight "the logical contender" for the champion's share—45 per cent—anytime, anywhere for the IBC.

After a long tugging and puffing match to get Marciano and Matthews on the dotted line, Norris announced each would receive 30 per cent of "everything," including gate receipts, television, movies and radio.

If Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager, has his way there will be no free home TV. Hurley favors a theater-television deal like the IBC has arranged for the Joey Maxim-Sugar Ray Robinson fight June 23.

Reynolds estimated the bout would draw "close to a million dollars." Norris previously said the match should do "at least $500,000."

Marciano, 27-year-old brawler who knocked out Joe Louis last October, has won all 41 pro starts since he came winging out of the army to start a boxing career. Marciano stopped 36 of his opponents.

Matthews, fighting as a pro since 1937, popped into the headlines after Hurley took him under his wing 2½ years ago. He hasn't lost in his last 70 bouts. Hurley's records show Matthews lifetime record as 105 bouts with 96 wins, three losses and six draws.

Marciano normally weighs about 166 and Matthews, a middleweight when Hurley got him, now comes in "around 182." Each had three fights this year. Marciano's last was the Reynolds bout at Providence, May 12. He currently is serving the final days of a 30-day suspension for the Maine boxing commission for "deception" in an exhibition tour. Matthews' latest was a 10-round win over Rex Layne before an Oregon record crowd of 11,000 paying $72,000 at Portland May 20.

Bill Williams Signs Professional Baseball Contract With Browns

Bill Williams, whose name has been synonymous with varsity athletics at Jacksonville high school for the past four years, was signed to a professional baseball contract by the St. Louis Browns in Springfield Saturday afternoon.

Williams, a strong right-handed pitcher, was one of the two young athletes signed by scout Walt Tamblin at the close of an exclusive two-day try out camp at Springfield.

Ed Skavy, smooth third baseman on Cathedral's nine this past prep season, was the other athlete signed.

Williams, the son of Glenn Williams of Jacksonville, will leave in a few days for Independence, Kansas, where he will compete in the Kansas-Oklahoma-Missouri class "D" league.

Rip Collins, former St. Louis Cardinal and Chicago Cub first baseman, is manager of Independence and is anxious for Williams to report and start pitching his turn.

Skavy will play for Enid, Oklahoma, in the Sooner class "B" league.

Tamblin did not reveal the terms of the contract. He did admit that Williams shows lots of promise as a pitcher and feels that the young athlete will move into a higher league next season.

When Williams inked the professional pact, he cast off several club players who have been seeking his talents as a basketball player as well as baseball. Williams also played varsity football at Jacksonville high.

Williams is 6-2 and weighs 175 pounds. He was leading scorer of Coach John Chapman's Jacksonville state tournament basketball team in March.

He won six baseball games for Coach Bob Kraushaar's Crimson nine this past season.

Robinson-LaMotta Fight Shapes Up

Detroit, June 7 —(AP)—Is another jaw-jarring Sugar Ray Robinson vs. Jake LaMotta fight shaping up?

When Sugar Ray stopped Jake 11 months ago with a bloody, battering assault, fans said that it was all for the aging Bronx Bull. That was the last of the many Robinson-LaMotta slugfests, they said.

But the International Boxing club indicates those fans might have been wrong.

Jinx Still On. Dodgers Slug Redlegs 11-3

Cincinnati, June 7 —(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, who haven't lost a game to Cincinnati yet this season, exercised their strange magic over the Reds again today and slugged out an easy 11 to 3 victory.

It was the sixth straight time the Redlegs have fallen before Brooklyn.

Just as in a game with Cincinnati earlier in the season when they scored 15 runs in the first inning, the Dodgers locked this one up in a hurry. They clubbed Bubba Church to cover and continued against Herman Wehmeier for five first-inning runs that had the Reds hanging on the ropes almost before the fans had gotten settled in their seats.

Cincinnati 010 200 000—3 7 1

WHEAT PRICES LOWER ON BOARD OF TRADE

Chicago, June 7.—(P)—An expanding harvest in the southwest, coupled with some moisture in North Dakota, sent wheat prices lower on the Board of Trade today.

It was a dull market, even in soybeans, which have been extremely active this week. Soybeans forged ahead in early dealings on buying by an eastern commission house, but toward the close the new crop months went into a slow retreat.

Receipts of wheat at southwestern terminals were picking up. Enid, Oklahoma, reported arrival of 277 cars today, all of it new crop grain. Wheat closed 1-1/2 lower, July $2.32, corn 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, July $1.82-1/4, oats unchanged to 1/4 higher, July 76-76 1/2, rye 1-1/4 lower.

July $2.09, soybeans 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher, July $3.23-1/4, and hard 2 to 8 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $12.05.

Estimated receipts of grain in cars lots here today: wheat 4, corn 107, oats 5, rye 6, barley 4, and soybeans 29.

Includes 69 cars of corn for the account of the CCC.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, June 7.—(P)—After a week of see-sawing price swings, hogs today closed 25 to 50 cents lower than a week ago.

Hog receipts were much larger this week than in the preceding one. Eastern order buyers continued extremely aggressive, taking about one-third the arrivals at prices about 25 cents higher than local interests were bidding.

Choice steers outnumbered all other kinds combined in the cattle section this week. Prices sank 50 cents to $1.00 high choice and prime kinds showed the full decline and sold at a new low since December, 1950. Heifers were steady to 50 cents lower, cows steady to 25 cents higher, bulls steady to weak and vealers mostly $1.00 lower.

All classes in the sheep section lost substantial price ground. Weakening factors included sizeable receipts and a dull to lower dressed market.

TRAIN TRIP

Remember before the days of automobiles how a trip by train was a common thing for children as well as grown-ups? In fact, it was the only way to travel when the distance was too great for the family horse. Today, there are many children who have traveled from one end of the country to the other by automobile, yet have never been on a train. Remember?

A Cody and Son service is a lovely tribute to the departed and a source of much comfort to those who remain.

What is the Salvation Army worth to you? Have you considered how much you would like to contribute to its campaign to raise $100,000 for a new building to replace the dilapidated and inadequate barracks on East Beecher?

If you haven't, now is the time to do it because the campaign is just getting under way.

There is one man in this area who has thought about it. His name is Bob Hicks, who lives with his parents on a farm four miles south of Franklin. Bob doesn't even live in Jacksonville.

But this isn't all. Bob is an invalid and permanently unemployed. He contracted a crippling disease after his discharge from the Marines and has spent three years in veterans and other hospitals in the Middle West in a vain attempt to get well.

Army Helps a Lot

"I owe the Salvation Army a lot," Bob says. "During the war it was the Salvation Army which did so much for the boys in my outfit in the Pacific. And after I got sick, my long and weary hours in hospitals were considerably lightened by constant attention from members of the Salvation Army. I don't think I would have survived sometimes if it hadn't been for those fellows. They don't ask anything. All they want to do is help out."

Bob is a cheerful fellow. He doesn't let his misfortune get him down. His mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. William Hicks, take care of him. They, too, are cheerful and philosophical, although they also lost a son in Sicily in 1943.

"After everything is considered, we've had a great deal in life," Mr. Hicks said with a smile. "Right now, my wife and I live to make Bob happy."

"One of the things he has found to make him happy is this gift to the Salvation Army's drive. He and we both feel we owe the Army a lot. They did so much for our son during the war years and during his illness."

Aboard Aircraft Carrier

Bob spent the war aboard the U. S. S. Boxer. This big aircraft carrier was at more than one of the famous beachheads of the Second World War. . . . Saipan, Iwo, Okinawa. "Things got pretty rough for some of the boys," Bob recalls.

Hicks gave a $25 check to Dick Stratman, head of the Salvation Army campaign. "I asked for the privilege to be among the first to give," Bob said. "I only wish I could afford to give more."

at the First Baptist church. The Junior Department with Mrs. Ray Sorrells as superintendent is meeting at the Christian church.

Marcia Garlich is pianist. Mrs. Harland Witham is acting as song leader and game director and Patricia Garlich and Nancy Barber are in charge of worship services.

The school is continuing through June 13th and it is expected that there will be additional enrollment on Monday. All children not attending such schools are invited.

On Thursday, June 12th, the Juniors will hold open house beginning at 11 o'clock. Parents and friends are invited to come and see what has been done during the two weeks of classes. The primaries are holding open house on Friday, June 13, at 11; while the beginners are asking parents and friends to come any time during the morning session on Friday.

Tributes Given Miss Anna Mann For Long Service

A large group of friends attended a dinner at the Dunlap hotel Friday evening honoring Miss Anna Mann who this summer celebrates 30 years of service in the Health Department of Morgan County.

Harlan Williamson, as master of ceremonies, called on Dr. Frank Marston for the invocation. After presenting Mayor Hoagland, Mr. Williamson presented Dr. Newcomb who introduced the members of the board all of whom were present and seated at the speakers table. He also presented the present office staff.

Mrs. Bessie Spaulding gave Miss Mann letters from former members of the staff now living at a distance and also presented 3 former co-workers of Miss Mann from a distance present especially for the occasion. They were Mrs. Edith Leeper Rule of Indianapolis, Iowa; Miss Florence I. Buchanan of Springfield and Miss Gertrude Weizel of Juneau Alaska.

Miss Mary Jane Benscoter sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "With a Song in My Heart" and as an encore "The Desert Song." Charlotte Hoagland accompanied her at the piano.

Mr. Williamson called on Miss Amy DeMotte for some history notes and she briefly touched on high points of Miss Mann's life emphasizing the influence of nature and emphasizing the influence of birds has had on her life and character.

Dr. Chapman, director of the health department introduced the speaker of the evening Dr. T. E. Musselman, the naturalist of Quincy. Dr. Musselman communicated his enthusiasm for birds to his entire audience. He speaks of birds as if they were human and endows them with romance, comedy and tragedy.

Before closing the meeting Mr. Williamson called on Mrs. Charles Gibson, secretary of the board, to say the final word. In a suitable way she gave Miss Mann the present her friends had prepared for her. On opening the box Miss Mann found to her great delight a pair of binoculars. A card was enclosed with crisp new bills to the amount of $150. Miss Mann replied with a speech of appreciation and thanks. The tables were all decorated with beautiful floral centerpieces given by the Garden Club.

A Fragile Bridal Fragrance Inspires Lovely Wedding Day

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Memories of your wedding day will last forever. The soft, creamy texture of your satin gown... the billowing cloud of white lace veiling... the unforgettable strains of Lohengrin.

To make this day completely perfect, you will want to pamper your skin until it is as satin smooth as your gown; brush your hair until it gleams as it never has done before.

As important as your bridal gown and the make-up you choose for the wedding is the fragrance you will wear. An invisible accessory, fragrance works its magic for you in a subtle way by underscoring the white of your gown, accenting the fragile, feminine air of your ensemble.

Plan a trousseau of fragrance—perfume, eau de toilette, dusting powder, both softener, sachet powder and liquid skin sachet. Each plays a role in the final picture you will present on your wedding day.

To make the most of your fragrance, here are a few tricks for you to try. Spray your chantilly lace hankie with a delicately scented toilet water. There is one such fragrance that will be the perfect companion for your aisle trek. Its lingering yet delicate scent will add to the whisper, "What a beautiful bride."

Then you might like to make a small sachet of the same scent and pin it to your slip. The fragrance will rise and wrap you in an unforgettable aura.

If you feel that fragrance does not seem to "stay" with you, try a liquid skin sachet. This unusual fragrance medium is particularly long-lasting because of its sachet base.

Spray your delicate bridal hankie with a toilet water that was inspired by the well-known beauty of chantilly lace.

Household Hints

Cut a frozen package of fruit or vegetables in half if you're only using a small amount. Then cover the open end of the unused portion with aluminum foil and return it to the food freezer.

Making oatmeal drop cookies? Before baking make a slight depression in the center of each cookie and fill with currant jelly. Small fry love these!

After arranging flowers, pour one tablespoon of an approved chemical drain cleaner down the sink outlet so that tiny leaves, bits of fern and fallen petals will not clog up the drain.

Like garlic? Then crush it in a little salad oil and spread it over hamburgers before broiling.

Keep your petticoats in style by sewing a few inches of stiff net or buckram along the hem line.

Serve tomato aspic with salad greens and asparagus tips for a delicious luncheon salad.

Hang pictures at eye level for the most dramatic and interesting effects.

Curtain rods should be wiped with a sudsy cloth before rehanging freshly laundered curtains.

Retiring heavy wool draperies for the summer and putting up cotton hangings saves the wool for longer usefulness in cold seasons.

out tomatoes. Add the part of the tomatoes you remove to the soup pot.

Greet Father's Day With New Ideas

Finding imaginative gifts for Father on his day isn't difficult this year. Consider the new grooming set (upper left) that combines after-shave stick and deodorant stick in miniature golf bag gift package. Or, for the man who likes to work about the house, there's an amber tenite plastic level (lower left) that's guaranteed shatter-proof. After-shave lotion and toilet water are pleasantly packaged together in unbreakable plastic bottles (upper center) and come in pine, sagebrush or desert verberna scent. Scotch plaid cooler (lower center) in red, yellow and black is made of coated steel, has a sanitary vinyl finish and is insulated with fibreglas. The ice bucket is good for picnics or a "big party" because it retains either hot or cold for long periods. All-rayon linen makes new sport shirt (upper right) in white and colors. It's shown here in white with contrasting blue trim. Formal pipe (lower right) is streamlined for easy carrying in pocket of a dinner jacket, has white briar bowl and black stem, and will be a welcome collector's item.

BY GAILE DUGAS, NEA Woman's Editor

New York—(NEA)—To find truly imaginative gifts for Dad on Father's Day needs only the realization that the old stand-bys are welcome if they have a new twist.

Men, generally speaking, are not thrilled by a package containing the standard and familiar white shirt. But the man who's handed a gift box that has in it several well-cut sports shirts in a brand-new fabric will instantly register interest.

It might well be a short-sleeved shirt that's done in all-rayon linen this year, with added appeal in the contrasting trim that's used on white or solid colors.

Or, let's consider the matter of pipes. Most pipe-smokers are accustomed to getting them as gifts on several occasions during the year. So, to set Father really grinning over his gift, it will have to be a pipe with a difference.

There are several new types that fill the bill this year. One is a light, streamlined pipe that fits flatly into a pocket, eliminating bulges. Specifically designed for use with formal wear, it has a white briar bowl and a black bit.

Or, there's another that's all briar, from bowl to bit. Its makers claim that it gives a cooler, sweeter smoke. And, because it's the first such pipe made, it can be considered a collector's item even though it's not expensive.

If Dad is a fisherman, if he likes picnics or enjoys big parties in his own home, a Scotch-plaid cooler is the gift for him. Though it's light and easy to carry, it's well-insulated. It will handle a capacity of four gallons, keeping the contents either cold or hot for long periods. It has, in addition, a transparent plastic separator tray suspended in the top to keep sandwiches away from bottled goods and ice.

Many fathers will find grooming sets at their breakfast plates on Father's Day. This is fine if the contents have a freshness in packaging or a special appeal in practicality.

Try an after-shave stick and a deodorant stick packaged together in a miniature golf bag. Or, if Dad travels, give him after-shave lotion and toilet water in matched, unbreakable plastic bottles. These are gift-packaged together.

For the man who's a Mr. Fix-It around the house, try for something more unique than a screwdriver or a hammer. The gift might be, for instance, a carpenter's level in shatterproof amber plastic. It has a large bubble that can be read at considerable distance—even at several feet above eye level.

WAVERLY

Waverly—Mr. and Mrs. Robert James and children, Elaine and Duane, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Spradlin and son, Tommy, of Pekin visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spradlin. Betty and Roy D. returned home with them for a week's visit.

daughter of the late Glen Schramm and Mrs. Lea Schramm, at Jacksonville high school on Thursday. The graduate is a granddaughter of the late George Schramm.

XXXVI
BASIL WILLING told Gisela of another analogy between Dr. Bertrand of "Mrs. Lirrippe" and Dr. Zimmer. "This," he said, "was when Rosamond said to Perdita Lawrence: 'You will notice only one thing out of the ordinary there. A certain number of us never speak of the future.' In the book by Dickens: 'No one alluded to the future. Nobody spoke of tomorrow.'"

"Those guests were all suicides and knew it. Zimmer's guests were all vicarious murderers or their unconscious victims. For the murderers it would be psychologically impossible for the tongue not to stumble now and then."

"I reread the whole story of Dr. Bertrand and discovered that Rosamond deliberately used one phrase from it the evening I met her at Zimmer's house. 'We are all supposed to know each other,' Dr. Bertrand used that formula to avoid introductions. It was like Rosamond to risk my recognizing that phrase. She wasn't in this just because she loved Zimmer and wanted Thereon Yorke's money without Thereon Yorke. She was satiated with every experience ingenuity could devise and money could buy; and danger, real danger, was a new sensation."

"That was what brought such a morbid glow to her cheeks and such a sheen to her eyes. Rosamond couldn't resist giving me another hint that first evening just for the thrill of gambling that I wouldn't guess the truth. 'I always thought you were on the other side of the fence—the fence between crime and law enforcement, between the killer and the healer. No wonder her voice had an odd tone when she exclaimed: 'To think of meeting you here.'"

"She must have wondered whether I was a potential murderer or a potential victim, for she knew that generally there was no other reason for anyone to dine at Dr. Zimmer's."

YUGOSLAVIA HAS TRADE TROUBLES
Belgrade.—P.—Yugoslavia, juggling its available raw materials for export cash and domestic demands, has run into trade troubles with Sweden.

Yugopress, a semi-official news agency, claims the difficulty stems chiefly from the "exaggerated prices" quoted for Swedish wood-pulp and paper, adding they run 100 per cent higher than offers from other sources.

GIRLS REJECT CO-EDUCATION
Taipei, Formosa.—P.—Boys argued for it in a broadcast program but the girls said "no" to co-education.

The girls' reason: it hampers scholastic progress by inspiring "unnecessary sentiment."
